A THEOLOGICAL AND MISSIONARY TRAINING SUMMER SCHOOL

Baptist Ministers of State and City to Have Formal Opening of Educational Institution In Nashville--Six Weeks of Religious Training to Be Given at New Theological Seminary--Big Work Planned for the City.

SUMMER SCHOOL FOR PREACHERS

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY TO BE USED—COURSE OF SIX WEEKS—DRS. ELLINGTON AND FIELDS ON FACULTY.

A summer school will be conducted for six weeks in this city at the Theological Training Seminary, according to information just given out in a statement from President J. L. Harding, of the State Convention who said, "An opportunity to pursue a theological and missionary training course during the summer months will be given the young men and women of this city and state." It is learned definitely that the Executive Committee in its meeting in planning for the educational interests of the State decided on a six week's course of theology and missionary training. They have already received consent of the Educational Board of the National Baptist Convention to use the property recently purchased. Both buildings will be thrown open and the student body will be given the same advantages that are to be offered by the first effort of the National Theological Seminary and Training School to be operated under the National Baptist Convention by a state organization in the United States. Much interest is centered in this new move on the part of the Tennessee Baptists. It is understood that these plans were worked out in the past six months, in fact, these plans have been under way ever since the adjournment of the Convention at Atlanta last September. It was not until certain details were worked out that the various interests represented could determine on the scope of the work, according to the best informed denominational leaders around this city.

Further announcement with full detail as to the opening is expected daily. Leading men from all parts of the State will be invited and a day set apart and given entirely to Theological Seminary activities. A big educational campaign has already been launched, under the auspices of the State Educational Board. President Harding who is also one of the trustees of the school, says that constant applications for entrance to the seminary have been coming in each week.

In addition to the school work, there will be an army in the furrows, conducted on the campus which takes up five acres and it is understood that boy cadets under the command of Col. Gore, will look after the truck gardening and that each afternoon these Sunday school boys will spend their evenings on the campus while the student body takes its summer course in Theology and missionary training on the inside. It could not be learned just who would head the faculty, nor be the president, but it is understood that there will be such instructors as Dr. W. S. Ellington, of the editorial staff of the Publishing House, who is also pastor of the First Baptist Church, East Nashville, Rev. J. C. Fields, who for a number of years was a member of the faculty of one of the universities of the city and who also is pastor of Pleasant Green Baptist Church on Jefferson street, and President Harding, who is pastor of the Third Avenue Baptist Church, will be among the first named instructors for the summer school. Associated with them will be the pastors of the various churches in the city, together with leading educators who will be invited to speak on special subjects during the summer school period.

NEGRO TROOPS PASS IN REVIEW

12,000 DRAFTEES FROM CAMP MEADE—FOUR DIVISIONS—PRES. WILSON AND CARDINAL GIBBONS IN REVIEWING STAND

Baltimore, April 10.—Probably the biggest impression made in the parade of 12,000 draftees from Camp Meade last Saturday was that of the 368th Infantry, composed of colored draftees from the counties of Maryland, Pennsylvania and Tennessee. There were four divisions, the 3,600 men of the 368th forming one.

From the time the men of the regiment began their march in East Baltimore, until they passed the reviewing stand at Mt. Royal avenue and St. Paul street, where President Wilson and a distinguished party sat, they received a continuous ovation. And the regimental band, with A. J. Thomas, played airs that caught the 400,000 people that lined the streets. Then there was the Drum Major, Sergeant Landers, a Philadelphian, whose masterly handling of his staff was the talk of the town. Each of the daily papers was loud in its praise of the band, drum major and regiment.

When the regiment reached the stand where sat the President, his attention, that of Cardinal Gibbons and other notables were immediately centered upon the masterly way the drum major handled his staff. Then the regiment band tarried and played patriotic airs, while the men filed by with heads erect and exact military step. The President seemed pleased at the appearance of the men. The soldiers began their hike to Baltimore from Camp Meade last Thursday. They arrived Friday, and when the 368th marched up Fulton avenue with some whites to camp in Druid Hill Park, they were applauded all along the line. They brought all of their army equipment with them. The men broke camp Sunday morning, hiking all the way back to Camp Meade, where they arrived a tired and happy lot Sunday night, singing all the way.

ALL COLORED ROAD SHOW.

Chicago.—Lew Carter, independent builder and manager of the Grand theatre is the leading mover in a project to put out a big all-colored road show along the lines of the arly Williams and Walker shows.

Associated with him are King Lee Kraus and Sam Kramer. The show, to be called "The Whirl of Dixie," will have 40 in the cast, and feature John Rucker, the "Alabama Blossom," and Harry Fiddler (Fiddler and Sheldon). The book and lyrics were written by Rucker. Rehearsals start in August.

About $15,000 will be expended on the production, it was said by Carter.

COLORED SOLDIERS TO HAVE CLUB HOUSE HERE.

Detroit.—Colored soldiers and sailors are to be provided with a free clubhouse by the National League for Women's Service.

Colored mechanics to the number of 150 have been stationed at Fort Wayne and other colored soldiers are frequently in Detroit. The need of a club house exclusively for these men was recognized by F. Forrester Washington, secretary of the Detroit League for Urban Conditions Among Negroes, and W. P. Kemp, editor of the Detroit Leader. They interested the National League for Women's Service, with the result that John R. Street, which will be fitted up for the purpose. They will be open only Saturdays and Sundays. —Detroit Free Press.

ANNUAL EGG HUNT AT GREENWOOD

THE "KIDDIES" WERE BUBBLING OVER WITH JOY—GOLDEN EGG THE BIG PRIZE—HANDSOME PRIZES AWARDED.

The grand Easter egg hunt at Greenwood Park was held Saturday, April 6th. Thousands of little bright-eyed boys and girls accompanied by their parents and attendants were there to take part in the hunt. In less than two minutes after the word was given the hunting ground was covered. Every one was as busy as a bee, each hoping to find the golden egg. Finally the hunt was over and the people were called to the stand to witness the awarding of the prizes, which was as follows:

REV. S. M. STRAYHORN, Grand Master A. F. and A. M. of Tennessee.

MASONS BUY FIRST LIBERTY BONDS

PATRIOTIC CRAFT SAYS G. M. STRAYHORN—$1,000 INVESTED—DEFENDING THE WORD "LIBERTY"—SETTING THE PACE.

The Masons of Tennessee under the loyal leadership of their intrepid Grand Master, S. M. Strayhorn have invested one thousand dollars in Liberty Bonds. The purchase was made through Thos. W. Wrasome banking company. The endowment association was desirous of buying the first bond issued in the Federal reserve district and acquainted Governor Tom C. Rye of that fact. Governor Rye telegraphed the request to the Federal reserve Bank at Atlanta Ga. The bank wired Tuesday that the request had been favorably acted upon.

REV. S. M. STRAYHORN, Grand Master A. F. and A. M. of Tennessee.

Grand Master Strayhorn says he is anxious to see the allies come "Over the Top" and make the entire world safe for the people. The Masons of Tennessee are a patriotic body of men whose officials are unrelenting foes of Prussianism. These men are willing and ready to subscribe for more bonds if it be found necessary.

Grand Master Strayhorn says, "Thrill in any crisis is a great asset and that the masses of Tennessee believe in thrift." "The Liberty Loan," he says, "is teaching a most forcible lesson to the people of the United States." The Liberty Loan right now is doing a great duty. It is enabling our government to defend the very thing the word "Liberty" implies. That is a great service in itself.

The Masons of Tennessee believe in Liberty, hence they were more than anxious to get the first Liberty Bond of the third loan, as it will tell a great story to future generations."

The following wire explains itself: Atlanta, Ga., April 8, 1918, Hon. Tom C. Rye, Governor, Nashville, Tenn.

ACTIVITIES OF TENNESSEE PYTHIANS

MANY NEW LODGES ORGANIZED SEVERAL CITIES VISITED BY FIELD DEPUTY—LODGES IN SPLENDID CONDITION.

During the past few weeks Tennessee Pythians have been especially active in organizing new lodges. The Field Deputy Grand Chancellor, Sir A. W. Fite has just returned from a visit to Chattanooga, Cleveland and Knoxville and reports the lodge in good financial condition. Chattanooga is in the midst of a big drive for new members. Their campaign committee is well organized and consists of such men as A. S. Banks, Grand Deputy, R. B. Buckner, Dr. W. A. Thompson, Dr. D. W. Allen, J. M. Easterling, L. Duncan and J. D. Fagala. These men are working hard and their efforts will doubtless be the means of increasing the membership in Chattanooga.

Enterprise Lodge in Cleveland is making progress rapidly. This young lodge has paid every dollar due the various departments of the Grand Lodge. In addition to this they have bought and paid for a splendid lot, centrally located, upon which to build a hall. The members are subscribing liberally to this new enterprise.

This work is under the direction of Sirs Hanson and Spriggs, together with other loyal and enterprising members of the lodge. Sir Westfield is also one of the live wires of Cleveland.

Tapoco No. 352 at Alco under the leadership of Dr. J. J. Jackson and J. L. Rickenbacker, much good work is being done to keep the lodge in good financial condition.

The visit to Knoxville was productive of much good. Many suggestions were given the Chancellor the good of the several lodges. Commander by the Field Deputy for The deputy advised that the leaders organize a council and push the work.

Toussaint L'Overture Lodge under the wise leadership of Sir Mitchell Burke was found to be in splendid condition and thoroughly organized. The Grand Deputy called upon the Grand Worthy Counselor, Mrs. Cora E. Burke, and was pleased to learn of the continued growth of the Calanthe department.

Sir Jno. Singleton, the hustling deputy of the lodges in the outlying districts of Knoxville is doing a great work among the lodges at Maryville, LaFollette and Lenoir City. East Tennessee seems to be taking on new life and will no doubt show a large increase by the first of July.

In West Tennessee the lodges are active in adding new members—Memphis, Jackson, and several of the lodges in the rural districts are doing great work. Locally, much good is being done. The Chancellor Commander and Worthy Counselors of Nashville are becoming organized and are working together in harmony.

Telegram received as this is the first request for first bonds coming to this district, we are pleased to allot it to the colored fraternal order. Have application and check filed from Nashville bank as soon as bond is received. Will forward one thousand dollar bond to the bank for them.

(Signed) McCord, Governor.

Miss Annie B. Watkins of 46 Robinson Street is sick and confined to her bed. Her many friends hope her illness a short duration. She is convalescing at this writing.

DOINGS AT PEARL HIGH SCHOOL

CREDITABLE EXHIBITION BY YOUNG LADIES—COMMENCEMENT PREPARATIONS BEING MADE—SUCCESSFUL YEAR.

The subject of universal military training has come in for a great deal of discussion since the outbreak of the great world war. The militaristic spirit of Germany by which she has built up a fighting machine with which to defy the world and which she has attempted to destroy democracy and civilization, has taught the peace-loving nations an important lesson in preparedness. Never again will the United States be caught in such an unprepared condition.

Believing that it is only a matter of time, when universal compulsory military service will be exacted in some form or other from all citizens between certain ages in our country, and that military instructions will be a part of the curriculum of all the high schools of our country, Pearl High school is but taking time by the forelock in teaching the elements of military training. Instructions are given to both the young ladies and young men for a period of forty-five minutes each day. This instruction received during the day and several very helpful and instructive addresses were heard.

At the Friday morning session the report of the Colored Unit which was organized some time ago with Dr. M. E. Coleman as chairman made their report through Mrs. F. E. Dawson, President of the City Federation of Women's Clubs. This report was received very kindly by the women present. The Conference gave Mrs. A. O. Kenny an ovation as she very plainly and eloquently addressed them on questions of vast import to the people she represented. Dr. Anna Howard Shaw of Washington, D. C., National Chairman of the National Council of Defense was present at the Friday session and addressed the body. The ladies representing the Colored Unit had the pleasure of meeting Dr. Shaw and hearing her views of questions of vast import.

The colored delegates were: Dr. M. E. Coleman, chairman; Mrs. J. C. Napier, Miss Scott, Miss Ferrell, Mrs. A. N. Johnson, Mrs. S. N. Crowl, Miss Kelly, Mrs. George E. Haynes, Mrs. I. B. Scott, Miss Pugh, Mrs. G. E. White, Mrs. A. B. Carter, Mrs. H. A. Boyd, Mrs. A. O. Kenny, Mrs. P. R. Burrus, Mrs. F. Pierce, Mrs. F. E. Dawson, Mrs. Lawrence Lewis, Mrs. Kate Wilson, Mrs. C. V. Roman, Dr. J. E. Wells and Mrs. Mary Flowers.

DISPLAY IN HOUSEHOLD ARTS DEPARTMENT.

Thursday and Friday, March 28th and 29th, were days of "Display" in the Household Arts Department of Pearl High School.

Miss Ethel Jordan, teacher of the courses in Household Arts is highly esteemed by the pupils in her various classes. Many pupils who are not taking the work greatly regret that they did not accept the opportunity and enroll in the course when it first opened at the beginning of the term. Course "A" a class of girls in 8-B grade, who are doing their first machine sewing exhibited, "Domestic Science Aprons." These were cut out from their own draft patterns and made from the material they bought. These on display were the aprons belonging to Charlie Cotton and Ellen

NAT. COUNCIL OF DEFENSE MEETS

PROMINENT COLORED WOMEN ATTEND—MADAMES A. O. KENNY AND F. E. DAWSON MAKE INTERESTING REPORTS AT CONFERENCE.

The chairmen of the different committees of the Colored Unit of the National Council of Defense, were delegates to the War Conference held at the State Capitol last Thursday and Friday. The meeting was called by Mrs. Denny of Knoxville and six or seven hundred women from all parts of the state assembled together to discuss ways and means by which they could better assist the government in the great war that we are now waging. The officers of this meeting were Mrs. Denny, Chairman, Mrs. Leslie Warner, Vice Chairman, Mrs. Isabelle Wilson, General Chairman and Mrs. John Welch, Secretary.

During the morning's session, Mrs. Isabelle Wilson turned the meeting over to the chairman, Mrs. Denny, in a graceful speech and Mrs. Denny accepted the same in a few well chosen words. The welcome address was delivered by a prominent Nashville woman and a lady of equal prominence from out of town responded in one of the most eloquent speeches heard during the whole session. Various war activities were under discussion during the day and several very helpful and instructive addresses were heard.

At the Friday morning session the report of the Colored Unit which was organized some time ago with Dr. M. E. Coleman as chairman made their report through Mrs. F. E. Dawson, President of the City Federation of Women's Clubs. This report was received very kindly by the women present. The Conference gave Mrs. A. O. Kenny an ovation as she very plainly and eloquently addressed them on questions of vast import to the people she represented. Dr. Anna Howard Shaw of Washington, D. Roman, Dr. J. E. Wells and Mrs. Mary Flowers.

Reece. Course "B" a class of 8-A grade girls combined with a class of irregular high school girls exhibit undergarments. Those exhibiting undergarments were Myrtle Watkins, Ophelia Vinson, Alice Johnson, Lucile Cartwright, Elmer Berry, Ellen Reece.

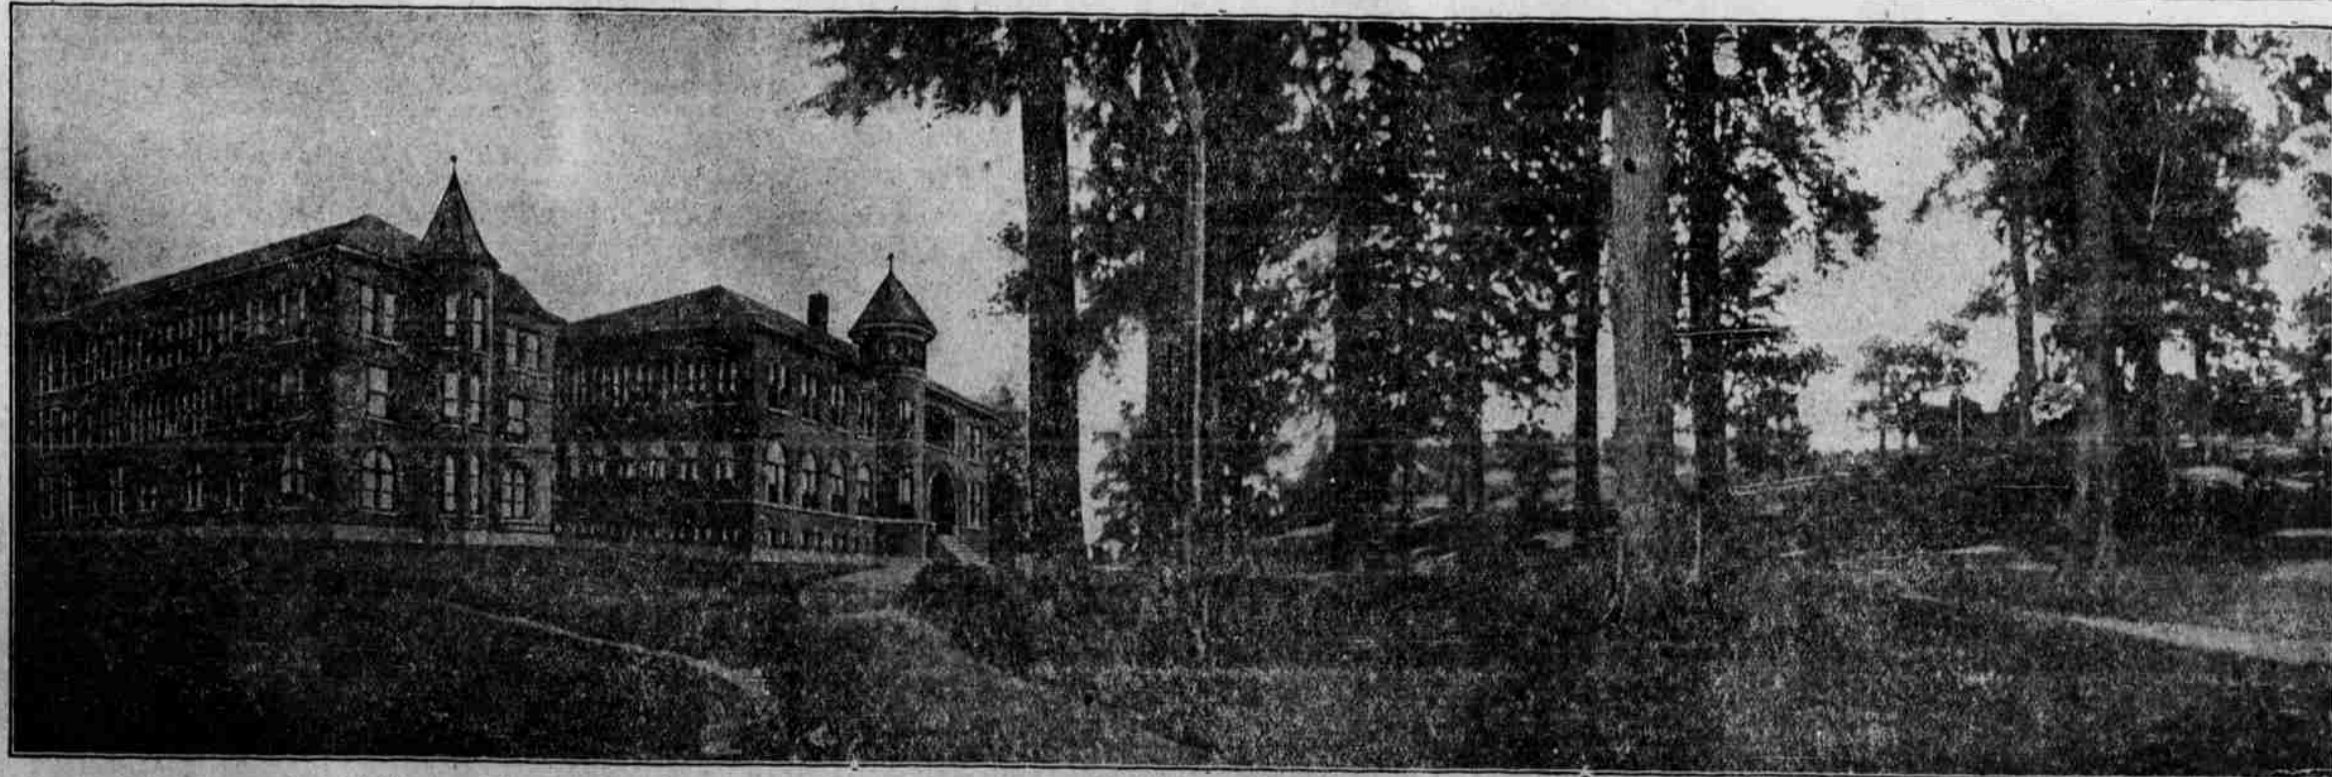

Those who had corset covers on display were: Myrtle Watkins, Annie Crump, Beatrice Hunter, Mamie Bryant, Serene Dillabundy, Queenie Aterberry.

Course "H" a class of 11th grade girls displayed their Tailored Skirts in wool and silk, cut from commercial patterns plaited and two piece pattern style. Their names are: Vera Batte, Franklin Perkins, Mattie L. May and Meomarta Rose. Course "I" also made a showing of the spring hats, a combination of braid georgette crepe and silk. The following girls had their tailored skirts on display: Vera Batte, Willie D. Anthony, Lona Dodson, Margaret Duff, Alma Holder, Mattie L. May, Frankie Perkins and Meomarta Rose. Among the visitors were: Mrs. William Allen of Boston, Mass., Miss Bertha Allen, Mrs. A. O. Kenney, Mrs. Lula Jordan, Mrs. R. B. Richardson, Mrs. Rose McCullough, Miss Lillian Cashin of Fisk University, Mrs. Sarah E. Allen, Mrs. S. J. Chandler and several of the city teachers. A number of the visitors, whose names have not been learned. While the young ladies have been wise to seize their opportunity, too much praise cannot be given Miss Ethel Jordan, the teacher and to Miss Elizabeth Randalls, the Supervisor of Household Arts and Science in the Hume-Fogg High School for the deep interest and painstaking care, without which such great success could not have been attained.

PROF. W. B. T. WILLIAMS ADDRESSES PEARL HIGH.

The students of this school listened with pleasure to an interesting address by Prof. W. B. T. Williams, the Field Agent of the Jeanes and Slater Fund on Monday. He congratulated the students on their new building and splendid equipment. He said that new buildings should mean an improved student body, and that the citizens of Nashville had a right to
